Shelly Ruddick advised that participation at the booth was wonderful with lots of volunteers and participation by the golf team. Tom Kormondy stated that in his opinion is that the booth needed more staff. It was too plain and needed more “glitz”. The putting contest put on by Southwest Greens was a great attraction with over a hundred slips in the drawing. Discussion followed with different suggestions on possible up grades to the booth. It was decided to address Grapefest at the regular April 2013 meeting.
